Stories from a Photograph

Look carefully at an old photograph. Answer these questions to tell a story about the picture.

1. What clues do you see in the photograph that will help you imagine the story of what happened that day?

2. What questions do you have about what was happening when this picture was taken?

3. What's your story about what was happening before and after this picture was taken?

©Vermont Historical Society