

A Vermont History Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. In Vermont, the first Tuesday in March is _____ Meeting Day.
8. The mountains in Vermont are called the _____ Mountains.
9. The _____ Point Military Road was constructed in 1760 to connect Fort Ticonderoga on the west and Fort Number Four on the east.
10. In Proctor and West Rutland, Vermonters for over a hundred years have quarried _____.
12. The Green Mountain State is known as _____.
13. The State Animal of Vermont is the _____ Horse, named for schoolmaster Justin _____.
16. Vermont is also famous for the poetry of Robert _____.
17. _____ Allen, leader of the Green Mountain Boys.
20. _____ Allen, his brother, was the founder in 1791 of the University of Vermont.
21. The hermit _____ is the State Bird of Vermont.
22. Milk and cheese are two important products of the _____ industry in Vermont.
23. Ann _____ was one of Vermont's brave settlers. Her husband Amos was killed clearing their land. She and her five children hid in a cave in the banks of Otter Creek to escape the Indians.
24. _____ is a winter sport which brings hundreds of thousands of visitors to Vermont each year.

Down

- Wilson Bentley of Jericho, Vermont, became interested in microphotography and was the first to photograph _____ flakes. He was known as _____ flake Bentley.
- The granite statehouse in Montpelier is made of granite quarried in _____, Vermont.
- The _____ River forms the boundary between Vermont and New Hampshire.
- Fort _____ on the shores of Lake Champlain was captured from the British by the Green Mountain Boys under Ethan Allen on May 9, 1775.
- Fanny _____, Ethan's daughter, visited Montreal and became a Roman Catholic nun. The Fanny _____ Hospital in Burlington is named for her.
- Fort _____ was built in 1724 on the banks of the Connecticut River near Brattleboro. The first English child born in Vermont, Timothy Dwight, was born there in 1726.
- In 1609, the French Explorer Samuel de _____ came up the St. Lawrence River from Quebec to a great lake which he named _____ after himself.

- French General _____ visited Vermont in 1825. He had fought for the U.S. in the Revolutionary War and was welcomed everywhere as a hero.
- _____ is the capital of the state of Vermont.
- Troop #1 of the _____ Scouts of America was founded in Barre, Vermont, October 29, 1909.
- Capt. William Jarvis introduced 300 merino _____ to his farm in Weathersfield in the early 1800s. The merinos did so well in Vermont that by 1840 there were six _____ to every person in the state and Vermont was an important producer of wool.
- Today Vermont is world famous for maple syrup, but a hundred years ago it was more common for Vermonters to make maple _____.
- The State Tree of Vermont is the Sugar _____.

ANSWERS

