

Becoming a State Writing Prompt
for New Hampshire land owners

As a settler, what do you think about King George's decision that the land where you started your farm belongs to New York?

Did your group make a decision to pay more money, move back to your old home, or stay on your land illegally? What do you think is the best decision and why?
