

Becoming a State Writing Prompt for New York land owners

As a land owner, what do you think about King George's decision that the land you bought belongs to New York?

Some of the people in the New Hampshire Grants ignored the king's decision and stayed on their land illegally. What do you think about their decision?
